

BARCLAY INTERNATIONAL GROUP

Short-Term Apartment, Cottage and Villa Rentals

Britain * France * Italy * Beyond

Since 1963, Barclay International Group has been locating the perfect accommodations for Europe-Bound travelers. We are proud members of the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA). We have received accolades from over 200 publications such as Diversion and Good Housekeeping as well as numerous letters from satisfied clientele.

Why Hotel Alternatives?

Short-term apartment, cottage and villa rentals are the perfect alternative for those who have grown weary of shoebox-sized accommodations at exorbitant fees. With an apartment, for example, you are no longer required to rent two hotel rooms when traveling with a family of four. Apartments can run about 50% less than hotel accommodations and offer the benefit of a kitchen for preparing meals, offering a cost-savings option to constantly eating out.

More private and discreet than hotel stays, apartments are a perfect solution for business travelers who want separate bedrooms but a common meeting space, for honeymooners, for family travelers where parents prefer a bedroom separate from their children, mature and health-conscious travelers who need use of a kitchen to prepare special meals, and even reunions of those seeking up to 14 bedroom villa accommodations.

Why Barclay International Group?

Unlike many villa and apartment rental companies, Barclay International Group welcomes travel agents as partners and rewards them accordingly. The majority of our properties are fully commissionable to all accredited travel agencies. Agents can relax, knowing that Barclay International Group has been in business for nearly 50 years and is well-known by the tourist boards of the countries we represent. You won't get a recording when calling BIG, but rather, someone who is familiar with the properties and eager to help you and your clients.

5-Star Properties

If your clients are accustomed to five-star accommodations, such as Four Seasons or Regent hotels, you'll want to reserve one of our 5-star properties.

They offer hotel-style amenities but in a more spacious and private setting than one would expect at a similar style of hotel, and at considerable savings.

4-Star Properties

For clients accustomed to Hyatt, Hilton and Marriott properties, our 4-star apartments will fit the bill!

You'll find upscale amenities, spacious accommodations, and a lower price tag than comparable hotels.

3-Star Properties

If your clients are looking to save their pennies and are accustomed to Holiday Inn or Days Inn accommodations, our 3-star properties should prove eminently suitable for their needs.

We represent 3-, 4- and 5-star category apartments in almost all areas of London, from Chelsea to Vauxhall, Kensington to the City of London, Knightsbridge to Mayfair, Soho to Paddington and Bloomsbury. We also offer flats in Marylebone, South Kensington, Lancaster Gate, Notting Hill, Hampstead and other prominent neighborhoods.
