

Rent a Villa... Rent a Phone

When you rent a villa you are destined to enjoy one of the most sought after vacation-scapes available. Now Roadpost helps make your dream vacation a more memorable one by providing you with communications solutions to keep you in touch every step of the way.

Getting Connected Has Never Been Easier

Enjoy the convenience of portable global communications from the moment you arrive at your destination. With International Cellular phone rentals and service from Roadpost, there is no need to purchase pre-paid calling cards or worry about getting your every day cellular phone to operate overseas.

With solutions designed specifically for the North American globetrotter, we make it easy and affordable for you to stay in touch with your office, family and friends from more than 150 countries around the globe.

Roadpost features quality phones that are delivered overnight, right to your door before your vacation even begins. Our phones will operate in your villa, accompany you to the beach, or keep you connected during a sightseeing tour. With International Cellular service from Roadpost, you can make or receive calls anywhere, anytime.

Superior Service to Fulfill Your Vacation Dreams

When you rent an International Cellular phone from Roadpost, you can expect optimal service. Thanks to rigorous quality control standards, Roadpost's reliable services fulfill your vacation dreams and expectations. You get 24x7 customer assistance in English and French, our commitment to answer your call quickly, resolve any issues immediately, and promptly respond to your e-mail requests. You also get free standard overnight shipping, and free calls to our customer care center when you use your Roadpost phone from any destination.

Paying Attention To Every Last Detail

Our attention to detail is what makes your Roadpost experience memorable. It all begins with advanced phone number delivery which allows you to share your contact information with friends, family and business associates prior to your departure. And it doesn't stop there. Our attention to detail continues with rigorous testing of our phones - after all we want to ensure that everything is in good working order. When you receive your Roadpost phone it is pre-set with speed dial numbers for voicemail and customer care. Your Roadpost rental includes our welcome kit, customized business cards and user guide and we even simplify your rental return by including a prepaid, pre-addressed courier package. Finally, detailed billing allows you to track and conveniently identify and expense airtime used for business purposes.

Communications Solutions for All Your Travel Needs

As a leading supplier of global communications solutions to both individual travelers and network carriers, you can rely on Roadpost to keep you connected no matter where you are in the world. In addition to our International cellular offering, Roadpost enables communications in remote regions with Iridium satellite telephone services. We can also extend your connectivity to the Internet, with our Remote Internet Access service with 15,000 dialing locations, all for the cost of a local call.

Talk to your villa agent, contact Roadpost, or fax back the attached form today to reserve your International Cellular phone.
